

SCP NOTE: The switched system power relays are activated by the GECM or the RECM whenever messages are present on the SCP Network. After the ignition is switched off, the relays remain activated until all SCP messages are removed.

