

EXPLORE SCOTLAND'S OLDEST DISTILLERY

Nestled in the spectacular Perthshire countryside, The Famous Grouse Experience at Glenturret Distillery is a five-star visitor attraction that offers everyone, from whisky lovers to those just soaking up a flavour of Scotland, a truly special and authentic experience.

Making whisky today the same way since 1775, Scotland's oldest distillery is the beating heart of The Famous Grouse, inviting visitors to experience the handmade distilling processes that have been used to craft the whiskies, By Hand and By Heart, at Glenturret Distillery for generations. Discover how the distillery's Glenturret single malt is carefully blended with other grain and malt whiskies to create the UK's No.1 whisky, The Famous Grouse and sample some tantalising drams on the award-winning distillery tours.

Make time to visit the distillery's delectable café and restaurant, Wilde Thyme at Glenturret, where you can enjoy mouthwatering dishes lovingly created using quality locally sourced ingredients from Scotland's larder. There is also a gift shop where you can Bottle Your Own whisky from a single cask of Glenturret, an exclusive malt to take home and savour long after your visit.

Find out more about The Famous Grouse Experience at Glenturret Distillery by visiting www.thefamousgrouseexperience.com