

 CAUTION: When using a floor jack to jack up the rear of the vehicle, the jack head must be aimed at the NVH bar securing bolts to avoid fuel tank damage or body damage.

 CAUTION: When using a floor jack, a cushioned pad must be utilized to avoid body damage.

 CAUTION: When using axle stands, a cushioned pad must be utilized to avoid damage to the body or rear subframe assembly.

E37355

Vehicle Recovery

NOTE:

Prior to vehicle recovery, make sure the vehicle keys are available and the security system is disarmed.