

The first two screens displayed contain general information for the operator. This contains basic knowledge of where the Vehicle Identification Block is stored and what state the vehicle needs to be in before the read can take place. Once these screens have been passed the WDS displays the complete VID Block and various icons.

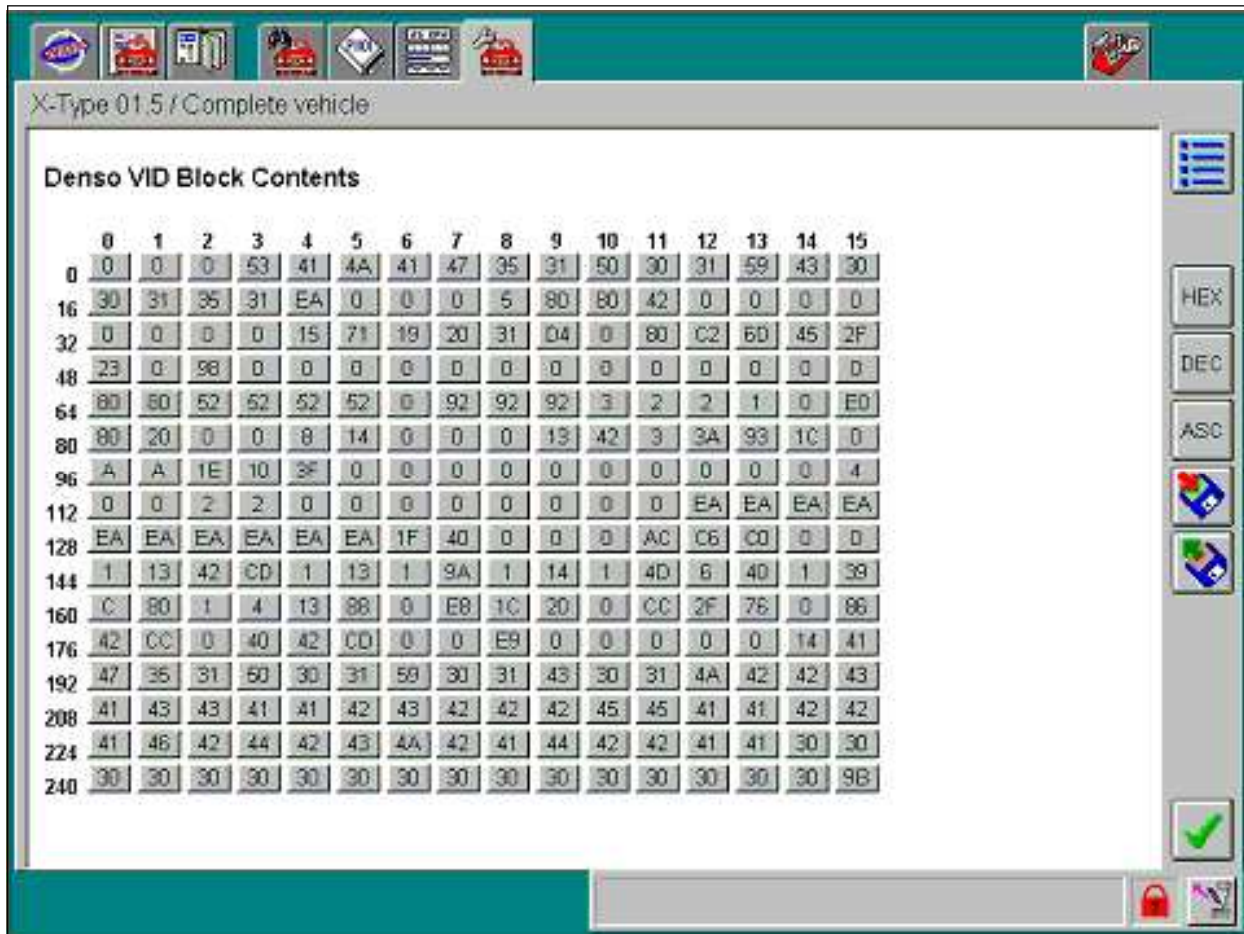

Fig. 48 VID Block screen display